At Holiday Time and Throughout the Year,
MDAdvantage Fosters a Culture of Giving

Many Local Organizations Benefit

Lawrenceville, N.J., December 19, 2014 – The holiday season is a time of sharing and giving, but for MDAdvantage (www.MDAdvantageonline.com), its commitment to deserving organizations continues all year long. Charitable giving has become an integral part of this Lawrenceville, N.J. medical professional liability insurer, and as a result, many local organizations have been able to achieve lofty goals throughout the year.

Each year, MDAdvantage supports a local Thanksgiving Food Drive. In 2014, MDAdvantage will deliver large baskets overflowing with Thanksgiving supplies and other much needed food staples to Trenton Area Soup Kitchen (TASK) in support of families in our local area. Additionally, in September, MDAdvantage employees supported the Catholic Charities Emergency and Community Services Back to School Drive with backpacks loaded with school supplies that were donated to support needy children.

“At MDAdvantage, we believe it is important to support the communities we live and work in. Our employees feel a deep sense of satisfaction when we learn how those at a local organization have been helped by our efforts—whether monetary or by volunteering time,” said Patricia A. Costante, Chairman and CEO of MDAdvantage. “I’m proud to say that giving back has become part of our corporate culture.”

Other organizations that have benefited from MDAdvantage’s generosity in 2014 include:

- Edward J. III Excellence in Medicine Scholarship Fund
- Seton Hall University’s School of Health and Medical Sciences Dr. George Perez Research Colloquium
- Rutgers University Foundation - Joining Forces
- PEI Kids
- Play for P.I.N.K. (Breast Cancer Research Foundation)
- Goals of Care

Employees also participate in the Company’s Corporate Giving Program, where MDAdvantage matches certain employee contributions to charitable organizations.
