8:00 – 11:00 a.m. | Registration/Breakfast 7:30 a.m.

This workshop is the 5th in the series on Enterprise Risk Management for the medical practice. This session focuses on Physician Wellness and Work Life Integration. Our expert will discuss key issues to consider and understand, including the personal approaches to build personal resilience, discuss practice efficiencies and creating a culture of wellness. The workshop session will include hands-on exercises to promote personal resilience as well as approaches to identify low hanging fruit to increase practice efficiency and to support a culture of wellness in your work environment. The topics in this session are relevant to you whether you are a physician or practice manager creating a culture of wellness.
